.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue a writ order or direction more one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus, declaring that the Circular dt. 28-9-2004 issued by the respondent No.3 as to be further detention of the petitioner after being qualified to enter into the 3rd year course and not permitting him to appear the examinations of 1st Semester in 3rd year is mala fide, illegal, void and opposed to the principles of natural justice.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.P.L.N.MURTHY

Counsel for the Respondent No.1: Mr. C. Kodanda Ram (Not present)

Counsel for the Respondent No.2: Ms. C. Sindhu Kumari

Counsel for the Respondent No.3: None appeared.

The Court made the following:

O R D E R:

This writ petition is filed aggrieved by the impugned circular dated 28-09-2004 issued by the third respondent, whereunder the petitioner is informed that he is not eligible for promotion since he has not secured the required credits.

When the writ petition is taken up for consideration on the last occasion, there was no representation on behalf of the petitioner and even today none appears for the petitioner.

The learned standing counsel appearing for the first respondent submitted that an identical issue has been considered by this Court in W.P.No.27418 of 2003 and batch and that the similar contentions raised by the petitioners therein were not accepted by this Court and the writ petitions were dismissed by a common order dated 09-03-2004. It is further represented that the said order has been confirmed by a Division Bench of this Court in W.A.No.669 of 2004 by order dated 01-04-2004.

In the facts and circumstances of the case and on a perusal of the order dated 09-03-2004 in W.P.No.27418 of 2003 and batch and the order of the Division Bench, I am of the view that the writ petition is devoid of any merit and the same is liable to be dismissed.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
